MACREYNOLDS AND RUSSELL

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 26.—Meeting in the lobby of the lone hotel, the headquarters of politicians, Scott MacReynolds, special agent of W. R. Hearst, who was made defendant in a suit brought by Governor Haskell charged with securing slanderous statements to be used by Hearst, U. S. Russell, manager of the democratic press bureau, became involved in a sensational scene in which the lie was spread. The intervention of friends prevented blows.

Russell took MacReynolds to task for his activity against Haskell. MacReynolds hurled words and ugly words at the newspaperman and the two glowered at each other while Major Charles Barrett stepped between them. Friends of both men separated them.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS

Guthrie, Ok., Jan. 26.—The senate adopted a resolution by Senator Stewart and Representative Williams of Pushmataha authorizing a committee of six to visit Hugo and Antlers, in the eastern part of the state agreeable to the understanding reached by the joint committee last night. The house had the resolution under consideration at adjournment. An amendment had been adopted to include Vinita, which also wants the asylum. It was agreed that the special committee would receive no money for expenses, other than from the state. Trips in locating public institutions, it is understood, will not go beyond the asylum and, under the present arrangement, normals will only be considered here.

Addition to Committee.

Mr. Durant of Bryan County and Mr. Paynes of Tulsa were added to the house committee on public buildings under previous agreement. Mr. Durant who offered a motion yesterday to force a report on the bill locating a normal in his town, stated today he would allow it to be passed until Thursday, and the understanding is that as far as the house is concerned public hearings will be done away with. Robert Wimlish, county attorney; W. G. Broadfoot, Charles Thomas and John Beard, representing Ada's application for a school, appeared today and will await final decision as to hearings before both committees.

A second adverse report upon the Goulding resolution, affecting the parole of a number of state convicts, came into the house from Mr. Semple of the committee on criminal jurisprudence and it is understood no effort will be made to revive it. Effect of the report prevents the board of pardons waiving the thirty-day notice required by the law. A house committee reported favorably upon Mr. Wallace's bill repealing the state and local dispensary systems and upon Mr. Charles' bill permitting the sale of apple cider in the state. Mr. Helms' anti-cocaine bore majority and minority reports, and Mr. Tillison's bill for state inspection of steam boilers was "killed."

Passed by House.

Final passage was obtained in the house upon Mr. Maxey's bill allowing but one trial in actions for recovery of real property; Mr. Ross' bill for preservation of court records, and Senator Russell's bill appropriating $20,000 per year for two years for county demonstration farms. The latter went through by a vote of 76 to 18.

Mr. Durham succeeded in having placed on the calendar the Rider bill affecting registration of voters position by Senator Stafford requiring that the guarantee fund should be kept in the banks, instead by the board treasurer, was pending when practically half of the bill was referred to a special committee. Senator Colville stated the fund belonged to the bankers and not the state, that the banks and not the state were during the insuring.

Recommendations of Clubs.

The first recommendations of the Oklahoma Federation of Commercial Clubs, a State-wide organization, to the legislature were received in resolution, which its executive and legal advisory committees adopted Saturday. The organization protests against the passage of the Gilmer bill, exempting from garnishment wages of persons who are wage earners in the state; favors a comprehensive road law and requests the appointment of a non-partisan tax commission, which shall report to the next legislature.

The federation also wants the constitution amended by repeal of Sec. 9 of Art. IX, that prohibits consolidation between railroad, transportation and transmission companies of this and other states. It avers, however, that the construction of railroads should be done by domestic companies, to the end the state may control, but that their operation thereafter as independent lines is a practical business impossibility in most instances; therefore, it contends, consolidation with existing lines should be made possible.

As the constitution confers extraordinary powers upon the corporation commission, the federation says the legislature should pass a law prescribing qualifications for members of the commission "that shall afford a reasonable guarantee to both the public and the corporations."

It also asks a change in the anti-trust law under which it is now possible for the state to secure a forfeiture of personal property of persons or corporations, used in hindering or restricting competition, requesting that this be eliminated and substituted by fine or imprisonment, or both.

Anti-Trust Bill.

Additional anti-trust legislation is contemplated under which the state may secure evidence and testimony a feature omitted from the general act of last winter.

The Echols bill follows the Missouri procedure, and, while giving the Attorney General specific powers in the conduct of inquiries, it is said not to conflict with the rules laid down by the supreme court in the Haskell-West case defining authority for the institution of suits in the state's name. The bill designates the courts competent to enforce provisions of the anti-trust law, and that the attorney general may file proceedings to have this done. Summons may be issued to produce testimony, and, should the offending company refuse to respond, together with books, papers, etc., requested the court may, upon the attorney general's motion, enter judgment against it. The act is to be applicable to pending action and does not abridge any right now entertained at common law or by the statutes.

The senate this afternoon reconsidered the amendments made in the Roddie banking bill, by which the minimum capital for state banks was decreased all down the schedule, and restored the figures of the original bill.

The three most important sections of the bill were referred to a special committee composed of Senators Echols, Stafford and Roddie, to report at 11 o'clock tomorrow.

The house committee today of prohibition enforcement reported favorably Wallace's bill to repeal entirely the Billups prohibition bill indicates that the house is preparing to have a scrap on the matter of enforcement and prohibition.

Railroads That Charge Three Cents.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 26.—Five railroads in Oklahoma are charging three cents per mile, by permission of the corporation commission—the Fort Smith & Western, the Midland Valley, the Oklahoma Central, the M. O. & G. and the Wichita Falls & Northwestern.

SENATOR JEFF DAVIS SPEAKS

Washington, Jan. 26.—The evils attending gambling in the products of the soil by the sale of futures on stock exchanges was the subject of a passionate speech delivered by Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas in the senate today. Mr. Davis advocated the passage of a bill introduced by him to penalize the use of the mails, the telegraph or telephone for the purpose of conveying gambling propositions between buyer and seller.

After advocating the passage of this, as Senator Davis denounced what he declared to be evils of the money power, he incidentally touched upon the policy of maintaining a protective tariff as a part of a system, which he declared was for the suppression of the rights of the people.

Picturing the conditions in Rome at the time of Julius Caesar, he described the death of Caesar as the price of Caesar's love and service for the poor, declaring:

"Would to God we had a Caesar in the White house today."

At the conclusion of his narrative of the acts of the Roman Emperor in securing laws to suppress usury and in obtaining legislation for the benefit of the poor of Rome followed by his tragic death, when "surrounded by treachery of the money power, twenty-three knife wounds pierced his body," Senator Davis said:

"This, sir, is a brief history of Rome and its great reformer, illustrating the terrible fate that lies in the path of any man who seeks to shake loose from the throat of this government these parasites of wealth, these stock gamblers, these jobbers that attempt to control the destinies of the government."

"Ah, the money power may be preying the American people too far. In some evil hour, in some unguarded moment, a match may be touched to the fuse that connects with the hidden mine of discontent and dismay that is planted beneath this republic, and I shudder for the consequences."

ILLUMINATING OIL COMPANY

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 26.—Attorney General Charles J. West today prevented the issuance by the secretary of state of amended charter to the Indian Territory Illuminating Company of New Jersey, a foreign corporation, on the ground that he has not been informed that the company had accepted the provisions of the state constitution. Until such acceptance is made the amended charter will be withheld. Recently the company elected some new directors and increased its capital stock. These changes are desired in the charter which permits the company to operate in Oklahoma.

In a letter today to Leo Meyers, Assistant Secretary of State, Mr. West says:

"I am not informed yet whether the company should be licensed in Oklahoma, as I am not informed whether it has accepted the provisions of the constitution. It is required by the constitution that a list of the stockholders should be filed with the corporation commission."

The application for the amended articles will no doubt be an acceptance of all provisions of the constitution, as required of foreign corporations.

INVESTIGATING; LOST LIVES

Johnston, Pa., Jan. 26.—While investigating the cause of a gas explosion in the Merchants' mine, a second explosion took place and 22 members of the investigating committee are reported to be dead. The committee was sent to make an investigation and to rescue victims of the first explosion when the second took place.

Desperate efforts are being made to reach the victims, but it is feared that none will survive, as signals from them have stopped.

The County Chairman.

The many people on the stage during the performance of George Ade's notable drama, "The County Chairman," which comes to the Ada opera house, Saturday, the 30th, does not merely form a background. You will recognize the village smart clerk, the fellows who hang around the depot, those always in front of the postoffice and never get any mail, the oldest inhabitant, the village milliner, who is a flirt, the man who keeps the general store, the station agent, the noisy fellow who is always talking about subjects that he only understands vaguely, the tumbled hair boy who has been in swimming, then the village orphan who waits on the table in the boarding house, and many others, some playing leading parts, some have not a word to say, but all are part of

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, inflammation can be taken out and deafness is the result, and unless the this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

Twenty-Six Saloons at Ft. Smith Supplies Oklahoma.

Fort Smith, Ark., Jan. 26.—The liquor interests of this city are doing a thriving business in Oklahoma. A walk and count in seven blocks' distance on Garrison-av. the main street, shows 26 wholesale and retail houses engaged in the liquor traffic.

It is claimed here that since the Rock Island road placed its special train on, some time ago, which runs from McAlester direct into Fort Smith, without change, that the liquor business has increased wonderfully. The "bootlegger" gets on the train at 7 a. m. at McAlester and arrives in Fort Smith at 11:20, and returns the same day with his supply. This train has been dubbed the "whiskey special."

CAN'T REFUSE MESSAGES.

Commission Orders All Telephone Companies to Connect.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 26.—The corporation commission has issued an order requiring all telephone companies to make physical connection with all others and transmit all messages without discrimination.

This general order followed a hearing of several individual complaints, where one company complained that another had refused to give it the advantage of its long distance connections. The last two cases of the kind to arise were at Geary and Mustang, in each of which place local companies were ordered to make physical connections.

Where companies are not able to agree upon rates for transmitting one another's messages, they are required to bring their controversy to the corporation commission, which has power to fix the rate.

Transferring Convicts from Kansas.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 25.—Guards leave McAlester tomorrow to bring back 50 more Oklahoma convicts from Lansing, and another 50 will be brought home before the end of the week. There are now 297 convicts at McAlester, 336 at Lansing, a total of 633. Of these 124 are eligible to parole under the proposed parole in wholesale quantities for which a measure is now pending in the legislature. There are 19 women: 63 "life convicts."

The convicts at McAlester now have nearly finished a building 60 by 300 feet, of sufficient size to house in a pinch 400 prisoners. The women and invalids will be left at Vinita.

CHAPMAN

The Shoe Man

East Main Street, Ada, Okla.

Proof That They Existed, But No Specimens Are in Existence.

Dr. Sudhoff not long ago read a paper before the Leipzig Medical society on dental forceps in antiquity. He said that even before the time of Hippocrates reference to the use of such instruments are found, but no specimens are met with among the surgical implements belonging to classical times that have been discovered. This can only be due to the material of which they were made. Unlike the mass of other Graeco-Roman surgical instruments, which were nearly all of bronze, the dental forceps of antiquity must have been made of iron or steel, although no medical writer mentions the fact. In the Aristotelian "Mechanical Problems," however, there is a passage which, according to Dr. Sudhoff, has hitherto been overlooked, in which it is mentioned as a familiar fact that dental forceps were made of iron. In the museum at Homburg, where there is an almost unrivaled collection of iron implements, two steel-plated dental forceps, one for the upper, the other for the lower jaw, have been found. That dental forceps should have formed part of the armamentarium of a military surgeon in a remote outpost shows in what common use the instrument was.—British Medical Journal.

MADE MRS. CULLEN FEEL PROUD

Pat's Ailment a Grand Large Disease for a Small Man.

"A Chicago physician says that he was once called to visit a sick man named Cullen, living in a tenement. Just before the doctor took his departure a number of the residents of the place dropped in to hear the verdict.

"Well, me friends," said Mrs. Cullen, with an air of modest triumph, "the doctor here says Pat has an attack of plural pneumonia. 'Doctor,' says I to him, 'ain't you exaggeratin' a troifle, for, to me way of thinkin' Pat is too small a man for that. Single pneumonia, I believe, is all there'd be room in him for.'

"But the doctor stands by his decision. Sure, it's a grand, large disease for such a small man as Pat."

And the woman's attitude showed the conscious pride that she felt.—Illustrated Sunday Magazine.

There is Full Proof of This One.

"We have lots of curious 'last requests' from patients who are about to have operations performed," said a nurse in the women's surgical ward of one of the New York hospitals, "but I thought about the last word had been said on this subject one day last week when one of my patients, before going to the operating room, called me to her and asked me to write two postal cards to her husband, so that she might sign them before the operation. One was to read: 'My dear husband: The operation was at ten this morning and I am getting along fine!' The other one was: 'My dear husband: The operation was at ten this morning and I am sorry to say I died. From your loving wife.'"

The Puzzle Craze.

"One of the curious things about this revival of the puzzle craze," remarked the man who notices little things, "is the fact that I never have met a man or woman who plays with the cut-up pictures nowadays who knew them as a child. Whenever I have commented on the superior beauty and difficulty of the present-day puzzles over the ones I knew as a little boy the invariable response has been: 'It is curious, but I never saw any when I was a child.' I don't just know how my youthful social standing could have compared with theirs, but I do know the old-time picture puzzles were sold in the best shops in my city at that time.

The Unreal World of Comfort.

The more plain and satisfying our state appears, the more we may know that we are living in an unreal world. For the real world is not satisfying. The real world is full of bracing bewilderments and brutal surprises. Comfort is the blessing and the curse of the English, and of Americans. With them it is a loud comfort, a wild comfort, a screaming and capering comfort; but comfort at bottom still. For there is but an inch of difference between the cushioned chamber and the padded cell.—Gilbert K. Chesterton.

An Admirable Profligate.

Hikealong Henry—Wot's happened to Measly Bill an' where did he git them new shoes?

Plodding Pete—Didn't you hear of Bill's windfall? He's got a wife somewhere that's sendin' him a dollar a week.

"Dollar a week. Hully smoke! Wot'll he do with it?"

"Bill says he's goin' to spend every cent of it."

"Well, say, wad do you think of that? Ain't he de wealthy voluptuary!"

The Persian Child's Rag Doll.

Persian children play almost exclusively with rag dolls, the clothes of which are put on to stay. She misses the pleasure of the American girl who dresses and undresses her doll most of the time.

A doll from the Sudan is cleverly described as a "rag and a bone and a hank of hair," and Sudanese dolls are characteristically greasy and dirty—would make cold shivers run up the hid backs of any French doll who saw them.—Bohemian Magazine.

Hunted in Morning, Served at Evening, According to Old Custom.

The quaint custom of hunting the hare in the morning, to be served up for the jury's dinner at the annual court baron, has just been revived at Chard, says the London Standard.

The custom has been discarded for the last 40 years, but in the old time it excited a great deal of interest. A local pack of hounds used to hunt the manor lands in the morning, and the first hare killed was sent back to the chief hotel for the dinner of the jury at the court baron.

It is said that another feature of the dinner was an enormous bowl of punch, the contents of which would cost as much as eight pounds sterling. The young Earl Poulett, who is the lord of the manor of Chard, brought over the Seavington pack of hounds this week and the mayor presented his lordship with a gold-mounted hunting crop as a souvenir of the occasion. Later in the day the court baron dinner was held and the hunted hare was served up with all the honors.

Judge Beresford held the monthly sitting of the county court in the morning and in honor of the old custom decided to postpone judgment summonses till the next court in order that there might be no commitment of debtors to prison on that auspicious occasion.

HISS IS IN NATURE OF BLUFF.

Sound Emitted by Cat as a Protection Against Enemies.

"Do you know why a cat hisses when in rage or anger?" said a nature student. "Well, sir, she hisses as a flying criminal puts on goggles and a false beard. With that hiss she tries instinctively to disguise herself as a snake.

"Did you ever notice the markings on a cat's tail? They are transverse, like a snake's markings. The primitive cat in the wild state lived in rather tall grass. When danger approached he hissed, and at the same time put up his tail and waved it slowly. The oncomer heard that serpentine hiss; he saw the tail—and only the tail—which waved in ominous, serpentine manner; he said, 'Snake in the grass' and withdrew.

"The cat of to-day, hissing horribly and waving to and fro his erected tail, follows ancestral precedent. It helps him not at all, nevertheless he always does it, thinking it the right thing. Is not man sometimes like the cat in this respect?"

American Towers of Babel.

In a single block in New York there are 1,400 people of 20 distinct nationalities. There are more than two-thirds as many native-born Irish in Boston as in the capital city, Dublin. With their children, mainly of pure Irish blood, they make Boston indubitably the leading Irish city in the world.

New York is a larger Italian city to-day than Rome, having 500,000 Italian colonists. It contains no less than 800,000 Jews, mainly from Russia. Thus it is also the foremost Jewish city in the world. Pittsburgh, the center of our iron and steel industry, is another tower of Babel. It is said to contain more of that out-of-the-way people, the Servians, than the capital of Servia itself.—Atlantic Monthly.

Fame.

A well-known operatic conductor once formed one of a select coaching party arranged by an English friend for a trip to Stratford-on-Avon.

It had been observed from the first that the musician evinced no warm interest in the objects of the town associated with the memory of the great dramatist.

"Shakespeare. Oh, yes, Shakespeare," murmured the Italian, wearily. Whereupon one of the party, volunteered a hint.

"You recollect, maestro, 'Amleto' and 'Romeo e Giulietta?'"

"Yes, yes, I understand," replied the musician. "Ze librettist!"—Harper's Weekly.

Blarney.

Of the culprits haled before a police magistrate in New York one Monday morning there was one—an Irishman—who had caused no end of trouble to the police the Saturday night preceding.

Four Lives Lost in Fire.

Fort Worth, Texas, Jan. 26.—Four unidentified men lost their lives, and another perhaps fatally burned here today in a fire which destroyed the Southern hotel.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Ada People Know How to Save It.

Many Ada people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is an Ada citizen's recommendation:

Mrs. C. C. Nash, E. Thirteenth street, Ada, Okla., says: "Different members of my family have used Doan's Kidney Pills procured at G. M. Ramsey's drug store, and in each instance the results of their use have been entirely satisfactory. We think that Doan's Kidney Pills are unequalled as a cure for kidney disorders. I cheerfully recommend this remedy to anyone suffering from kidney troubles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Mulburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Rexall
"93" HAIR TONIC

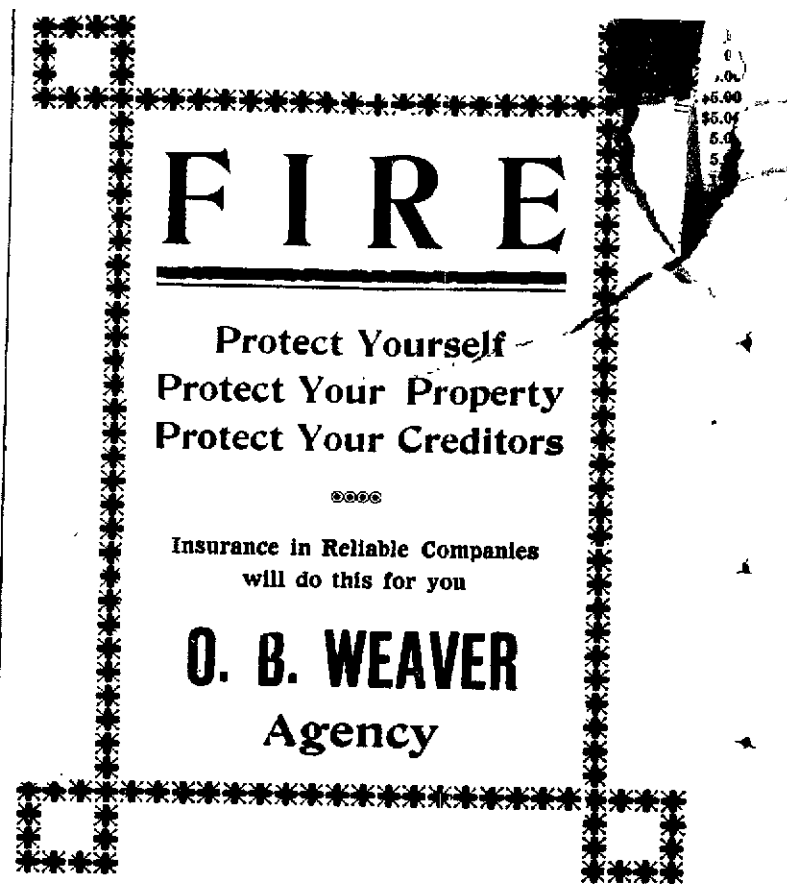

Our faith in the superior remedial qualities of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is so strong that we promise to return your money—without question or quibble—if it does not do what we claim it will.

Because it contains Resorcin, Beta Naphthol, Pilocarpin, Borax, Glycerin and Alcohol in perfect combination, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic provides the softening, cleansing, antiseptic, germicidal, stimulating and nourishing properties, so desirable and necessary for the successful treatment of scalp and hair troubles.

If used according to directions for a reasonable length of time, we are absolutely positive that it will thoroughly cleanse the scalp and hair, relieve irritation, eradicate dandruff, stimulate the hair follicles and papilla, revitalize and nourish the hair roots, stop falling hair, prevent baldness, promote hair growth and make the hair naturally soft and silky.

You must realize that we would not dare back up our claims with such a liberal offer unless we were positive that we can substantiate our statements in every particular, and the most skeptical person should at least be willing to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic at our risk.

MACREYNOLDS AND RUSSELL

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 26.—Meeting in the lobby of the lone hotel, the headquarters of politicians, Scott MacReynolds, special agent of W. H. Hearst, who was made defendant in a suit brought by Governor Haskell charged with securing slanderous statements to be used by Hearst, U. S. Russell, manager of the democratic press bureau, became involved in a sensational scene in which the two men were separated. The intervention of friends prevented blows.

Russell took MacReynolds to task for his activity against Haskell. MacReynolds hurling an ugly word at the newspaperman and the two glowered at each other while Major Charles Barrett stepped between them. Friends of both men separated them.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS

Guthrie, Ok., Jan. 26.—The senate adopted a resolution by Senator Stewart and Representative Williams of Pushmataha authorizing a committee of six to visit Hugo and Antlers, in the eastern part of the state agreeable to the understanding reached by the joint committee last night. The house had the resolution under consideration at adjournment. An amendment had been adopted to include Vinita, which also wants the asylum. It was agreed that the special committee would receive no money for expenses, other than from the state. Trips in locating public institutions, it is understood, will not go beyond the asylum and, under the present arrangement, normals will only be considered here.

Addition to Committee.

Mr. Durant of Bryan County and Mr. Paynes of Tulsa were added to the house committee on public buildings under previous agreement. Mr. Durant who offered a motion yesterday to force a report on the bill locating a normal in his town, stated today he would allow it to be passed until Thursday, and the understanding is that as far as the house is concerned public hearings will be done away with. Robert Wimbish, county attorney; W. G. Broadfoot, Charles Thomas and John Beard, representing Ada's application for a school, appeared today and will await final decision as to hearings before both committees.

A second adverse report upon the Goulding resolution, affecting the parole of a number of state convicts, came into the house from Mr. Semple of the committee on criminal jurisprudence and it is understood no effort will be made to revive it. Effect of the report prevents the board of pardons waiving the thirty-day notice required by the law. A house committee reported favorably upon Mr. Wallace's bill repealing the state and local dispensary systems and upon Mr. Charles' bill permitting the sale of apple cider in the state. Mr. Heims' anti-cocaine bore majority and minority reports, and Mr. Tillison's bill for state inspection of steam boilers was "killed."

Passed by House.

Final passage was obtained in the house upon Mr. Maxey's bill allowing but one trial in actions for recovery of real property; Mr. Ross' bill for preservation of court records, and Senator Russell's bill appropriating $20,000 per year for two years for county demonstration farms. The latter went through by a vote of 76 to 18.

Mr. Durham succeeded in having placed on the calendar the Rider bill affecting registration of voters position by Senator Stafford requiring that the guarantee fund should be kept in the banks, instead of the board treasurer, was pending when practically half of the bill was referred to a special committee. Senator Colville stated the fund belonged to the bankers and not the state, that the banks and not the state were during the insuring.

Recommendations of Clubs.

The first recommendations of the Oklahoma Federation of Commercial Clubs, a State-wide organization, to the legislature were received in resolution, which its executive and legal advisory committees adopted Saturday. The organization protests against the passage of the Gilmer bill, exempting from garnishment wages of persons who are wage earners in the state; favors a comprehensive road law and requests the appointment of a non-partisan tax commission, which shall report to the next legislature.

The federation also wants the constitution amended by repeal of Sec. 9 of Art. IX, that prohibits consolidation between railroad, transportation and transmission companies of this and other states. It avers, however, that the construction of railroads should be done by domestic companies, to the end the state may control, but that their operation thereafter as independent lines is a practical business impossibility in most instances; therefore, it contends, consolidation with existing lines should be made possible.

As the constitution confers extraordinary powers upon the corporation commission, the federation says the legislature should pass a law prescribing qualifications for members of the commission "that shall afford a reasonable guarantee to both the public and the corporations."

It also asks a change in the anti-trust law under which it is now possible for the state to secure a forfeiture of personal property of persons or corporations, used in hindering or restricting competition, requesting that this be eliminated and substituted by fine or imprisonment, or both.

Anti-Trust Bill.

Additional anti-trust legislation is contemplated under which the state may secure evidence and testimony a feature omitted from the general act of last winter.

The Echols bill follows the Missouri procedure, and, while giving the Attorney General specific powers in the conduct of inquiries, it is said not to conflict with the rules laid down by the supreme court in the Haskell-West case defining authority for the institution of suits in the state's name. The bill designates the courts competent to enforce provisions of the anti-trust law, and that the attorney general may file proceedings to have this done. Summons may be issued to produce testimony, and, should the offending company refuse to respond, together with books, papers, etc., requested the court may, upon the attorney general's motion, enter judgment against it. The act is to be applicable to pending action and does not abridge any right now entertained at common law or by the statutes.

The senate this afternoon reconsidered the amendments made in the Roddie banking bill, by which the minimum capital for state banks was decreased all down the schedule, and restored the figures of the original bill.

The three most important sections of the bill were referred to a special committee composed of Senators Echols, Stafford and Roddie, to report at 11 o'clock tomorrow.

The house committee today of prohibition enforcement reported favorably Wallace's bill to repeal entirely the Billups prohibition bill indicates that the house is preparing to have a scrap on the matter of enforcement and prohibition.

Railroads That Charge Three Cents.
Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 26.—Five railroads in Oklahoma are charging three cents per mile, by permission of the corporation commission—the Fort Smith & Western, the Midland Valley, the Oklahoma Central, the M. O. & G. and the Wichita Falls & Northwestern.

I. M. King leaves for Muskogee today on legal business.

SENATOR JEFF DAVIS SPEAKS

Washington, Jan. 26.—The evils attending gambling in the products of the soil by the sale of futures on stock exchanges was the subject of a passionate speech delivered by Senator Jeff Davis of Arkansas in the senate today. Mr. Davis advocated the passage of a bill introduced by him to penalize the use of the mails, the telegraph or telephone for the purpose of conveying gambling propositions between buyer and seller.

After advocating the passage of this, as Senator Davis denounced what he declared to be evils of the money power, he incidentally touched upon the policy of maintaining a protective tariff as a part of a system, which he declared was for the suppression of the rights of the people.

Picturing the conditions in Rome at the time of Julius Caesar, he described the death of Caesar as the price of Caesar's love and service for the poor, declaring: "Would to God we had a Caesar in the White house today."

At the conclusion of his narrative of the acts of the Roman Emperor in securing laws to suppress usury and in obtaining legislation for the benefit of the poor of Rome followed by his tragic death, when "surrounded by treachery of the money power, twenty-three knife wounds pierced his body," Senator Davis said:

"This, sir, is a brief history of Rome and its great reformer, illustrating the terrible fate that lies in the path of any man who seeks to shake loose from the throat of this government these parasites of wealth, these stock gamblers, these jobbers that attempt to control the destinies of the government."

"Ah, the money power may be pressing the American people too far. In some evil hour, in some unguarded moment, a match may be touched to the fuse that connects with the hidden mine of discontent and dismay that is planted beneath this republic, and I shudder for the consequences."

had accepted the provisions of the state constitution. Until such acceptance is made the amended charter will be withheld. Recently the company elected some new directors and increased its capital stock. These changes are desired in the charter which permits the company to operate in Oklahoma.

In a letter today to Leo Meyers, Assistant Secretary of State, Mr. West says: "I am not informed yet whether the company should be licensed in Oklahoma, as I am not informed whether it has accepted the provisions of the constitution. It is required by the constitution that a list of the stockholders should be filed with the corporation commission."

The application for the amended articles will no doubt be an acceptance of all provisions of the constitution, as required of foreign corporations.

INVESTIGATING; LOST LIVES

Johnston, Pa., Jan. 26.—While investigating the cause of a gas explosion in the Merchants' mine, a second explosion took place and 22 members of the investigating committee are reported to be dead.

The committee was sent to make an investigation and to rescue victims of the first explosion when the second took place.

Desperate efforts are being made to reach the victims, but it is feared that none will survive, as signals from them have stopped.

PRESS COMMENT.

EXTEND THE INVESTIGATION

Unless some remedial legislation is had at the present session of the legislature, the credit of most counties in the eastern part of the state is going to suffer very severely. At present, commissioners are not allowed to issue warrants for more than 80 per cent of the tax levy for the current year and consequently most counties are not allowed to issue warrants for supplies purchased during the past three months. Warrants cannot be issued until the next tax levy is made, which will be in July. Then there will be no money with which to pay the warrants until the taxes are collected on the above levy. At present any kind of supplies furnished this county will not be paid for before next January. If then Senator Wynne has introduced a bill which gives commissioners authority to borrow money to the extent of the above 80 per cent as soon as warrants are issued.

Oklahoma has fixed salaries and fees for her officers. She also has fixed a rate for legal and official publication. Her officers draw every cent coming to them in fees or salary, yet at the same time, some of them want the newspapers man to do his work for less than the state allows for such work or have the papers of the county cut each other's throat with bids for the work. Is it right? Nav. say, Pauline—Middl News

Muskogee, Ok., Jan. 26—Every precaution is being used to guard the secrets in the interior of the wall of the United States jail where the federal grand jury is probing into the alleged land and town lot frauds. Three indictments have been returned. It is reported. It is understood that no less than 300 indictments will be returned before the grand jury finishes its work. When court was called at 10 o'clock this morning the room was crowded. The space behind the rail was occupied by attorneys, secret service men, representatives of the government and prominent citizens of the state. There are twenty-one members of the grand jury, and, according to the rules of procedure, it will be necessary for sixteen to be in session at all times.

Two mentioned in connection with the suits are on their death beds. After the preliminaries the grand jury was led to the hospital ward in the federal jail.

L. B. Conway, Thomas Hamlin and W. W. Williamson were the first witnesses examined.

It was reported here this afternoon that President Roosevelt had wired here that the investigation should not be confined to Muskogee alone.

The man who is always borrowing money is almost as great a nuisance as the one who has no money to lend.

When Dame Fortune knocks at our door we are consumed with the hope that all our neighbors are looking out of their windows.

The County Chairman.

The many people on the stage during the performance of George Ade's notable drama, "The County Chairman," which comes to the Ada opera house, Saturday, the 30th, does not merely form a background. You will recognize the village smart clerk, the fellows who hang around the depot, those always in front of the postoffice and never get any mail, the oldest inhabitant, the village milliner, who is a flirt, the man who keeps the general store, the station agent, the noisy fellow who is always talking about subjects that he only understands vaguely, the tousel hair boy who has been in swimming, then the village orphan who waits on the table in the boarding house, and many others, some playing leading parts, some have not a word to say, but all are part of the picture. George Ade has been able to write a play like "The County Chairman," because he was brought up in a little village of the west himself and knows just what he was talking about. Being a politician he shows many "gum shoe" methods employed in politics.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is, by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, inflammation can be taken out and deafness is the result, and unless the tube is restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars. Free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

THE WHISKEY SPECIAL.

Twenty-Six Saloons at Ft. Smith Supplies Oklahoma.

Fort Smith, Ark., Jan. 26.—The liquor interests of this city are doing a thriving business in Oklahoma. A walk and count in several blocks' distance on Garrison-av, the main street, shows 26 wholesale and retail houses engaged in the liquor traffic.

It is claimed here that since the Rock Island road placed its special train on, some time ago, which runs from McAlester direct into Fort Smith, without change, that the liquor business has increased wonderfully. The "bootlegger" gets on the train at 7 a. m. at McAlester and arrives in Fort Smith at 11:20, and returns the same day with his supply. This train has been dubbed the "whiskey special."

CAN'T REFUSE MESSAGES.

Commission Orders All Telephone Companies to Connect.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 26.—The corporation commission has issued an order requiring all telephone companies to make physical connection with all others and transmit all messages without discrimination.

This general order followed a hearing of several individual complaints, where one company complained that another had refused to give it the advantage of its long distance connections. The last two cases of the kind to arise were at Geary and Mustang, in each of which place local companies were ordered to make physical connections.

Where companies are not able to agree upon rates for transmitting one another's messages, they are required to bring their controversy to the corporation commission, which has power to fix the rate.

Transferring Convicts from Kansas.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 25.—Guards leave McAlester tomorrow to bring back 50 more Oklahoma convicts from Lansing, and another 50 will be brought home before the end of the week. There are now 297 convicts at McAlester, 336 at Lansing, a total of 633. Of these 124 are eligible to parole under the proposed parole in wholesale quantities for which a measure is now pending in the legislature. There are 19 women; 68 "life convicts."

The convicts at McAlester now have nearly finished a building 60 by 300 feet, of sufficient size to house in a pinch 400 prisoners. The women and invalids will be left at Vinita.

ALDRICH & THOMPSON.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 27.—At a meeting of the state board of convict control this morning it was decided to at once publish notice for parole of 124 Oklahoma convicts who have served two-thirds of their sentence, or are in the last year of their sentence, or are under 18 years of age. Half of those to benefit by the parole are in the Lansing penitentiary. Action of the legislature toward authorizing such paroling without notice will not be awaited longer.

The remainder of the convicts will be kept at McAlester, which was built by convict labor, with the exception of 100 principally women and invalids, who will be placed in the jail at Vinita.

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS

Guthrie, Ok., Jan. 27.—Senator Eggerman's bill to create a home for the confederate and Union soldiers who are bona fide residents of the state was recommended for passage by the senate today after being debated for nearly all the afternoon.

Senators Brownlee of Kingfisher and Cunningham of Guthrie, republican members, presented sixty-two of the grand army posts of Oklahoma, urging defeat of the bill or at least that reference to the Union soldiers be eliminated.

Higgins' Letter Causes Stir. With the communications was a letter from William Higgins, postmaster of Bartlesville and formerly secretary of state of Kansas, who is serving as vice commander of the grand army of the republic of Oklahoma, which was read upon request of Senator Cunningham.

The letter was construed as a reflection upon the ex-confederate members of the legislature, as well as the author of the bill, and a number of speeches were made rebuking the Guthrie senator for requesting its publicity.

The Redwine proposition to divide the home was defeated as was the Brownlee motion to eliminate the ex-union soldier and the bill was recommended for adoption. It was made to include, however, all soldiers of the Mexican, Indian or Spanish wars. Final passage was obtained upon the bill by Senator Russell making the penalties for criminal assault from ten years to death and for attempt to criminally assault from three years to death; the bill by Senator Billups defining procedure for mortgage or sale of homestead of insane husband or wife, proceedings to be brought in the district court, and Senator Sorrell's bill fixing terms of members of the state mining board, and with amendments by Senator Redwine that they shall be citizens of the United States, take the oath of Oklahoma and be confirmed by the senate.

Senator Billups introduced a bill fixing a license for peddlers, and Senator Landrum to tax dogs for benefit of good roads.

In the house final passage was obtained upon Senator Redwine's bill authorizing the sentencing of prisoners to the Oklahoma state penitentiary in place of to Lansing, Kan., it was provided that nothing in the act should be construed as locating the state penitentiary at McAlester permanently. Authority was given, in accordance with the governor's message, to bring prisoners from Kansas to Oklahoma and confine temporarily with the sheriffs of Craig and Atoka counties those not to be accommodated at McAlester.

House committees reported unfavorably the Sullivan bill for free textbooks; Gilmer's bill against garnishment of wages, and Heim's bill mak-

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, inflammation can be taken out and deafness is the result, and unless the tube is restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever: nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars. Free. F. J. CHENEY & CO, Toledo, O

REQUISITES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Pastor Must Carry Earth's Freshness to Do Effective Work.

A minister in these indoor days needs all the open air he can beg, borrow or buy. Consider a moment. Through the week his privilege will call him into close and curtained sick rooms—sick rooms of the soul, most of them; he can never go, to any good purpose, unless all the clear winds of heaven and health are buttoned freely under his coat. He shall have daily to move among persons whose skies are perpetually overcast and gray, whose infirmities act upon their friends like a fine, drizzling rain in November; he must somewhere have observed more sunshine than will ripen a thousand strawberries, and an evenness of temper that earthquakes cannot shake. Time and again he will have to work with people whose outlook is narrow and their horizon short; he must somehow have gotten a vision of distance—of far prospects and wide adventures; he must have climbed a hill with a friend that challenges, he must have driven a canoe through smoking rapids, he must have galloped a young horse across green meadows.—H. D. Gallaudet in the Outlook

PRIOR TO DAYS OF COPYRIGHT.

Golden Opportunity That Cassandra Overlooked.

Xanthippe, Cassandra, Queen Elizabeth and Dido were walking along the Styx one afternoon not long ago and the conversation between these eminent ladies turned upon prophecy. With the exception of Cassandra none of them seemed to take much stock in it.

"Tell me the honest truth now, Cassandra—could you really see into the future?" asked Dido with a skeptical smile at the prophetic.

"I could, honestly," said Cassandra earnestly.

"How far, Cassie?" queried Queen Elizabeth.

"All the far there was," said Cassandra.

"Humph," said Xanthippe. "Could you see as far ahead as—Rudyard Kipling?"

"Yep," said Cassandra. "I'd read all Kipling ten years before the fall of Troy."

"Then all I've got to say," said Xanthippe tartly, "is you were an awful fool not to copy the stuff down and publish it as your own."

A Rural Enoch Arden.

"In our little town in a western state," said Brown, "there was a half-witted sort of a fellow named Bill Wilkes. One day Bill took to the railroad tracks and never reappeared for about six years. In the meantime his wife, Bettie, took in washing and supported the family. One day Bill came back. He went around to the kitchen door, softly opened it, stuck in his head and said, 'Boo, Bettie.' Bettie turned around from her washbub. 'Te he,' said Bill. 'I scared ye, didn't I, Bettie?' Whenever I see a stage husband return to his family I think of Bill's greeting after six years' absence: 'Boo, Bettie. I scared ye, didn't I?'"

Why and Wherefore.

A minister one day found a little boy in tears and questioned him as to the cause of his distress. The youngster replied that his father had punished him for being naughty, and he was mighty glad that his mother hadn't done it.

"Why do you prefer to have your father whip you?" questioned the minister. "Is it because he is less severe than your mother?"

"No," replied the boy, "but when he kicks me ma says he's a brute and always gives me money to buy candy." —Harper's Weekly.

Just to Make Sure.

An old farmer, who by hard work and thrifty habits had got together a small fortune, decided that the time had at length arrived when he was justified in ordering a family carriage. He went to a carriage builder and described in detail the kind of vehicle he wished to buy.

"Now, I suppose you want rubber tires?" said the carriage builder.

"No, sir," replied the old farmer in tones of resentment. "My folks ain't that kind. When they're riding they want to know it."

The Value of Books.

A young girl once asked Mark Twain if he liked books for Christmas gifts.

"Well, that depends," drawled the great humorist. "If a book has a leather cover it is really valuable as a razor strop. If it is a brief, concise work, such as the French write, it is useful to put under the short leg of a wobbly table. An old-fashioned book with a clasp can't be beat as a missile to hurl at a dog, and a large book, like a geography, is as good as a piece of tin to nail over a broken pane of glass."

Wheeled a Sheep for Charity.

When a young woman asked a farmer at Shavington, near Market Drayton, England, for a contribution toward a bazaar to be held at the village of Calverhall on Saturday next he promised to give her a live sheep on condition that she pushed it in a wheelbarrow from Shavington to Calverhall, a distance of nearly three miles.

The offer was promptly accepted, and in the presence of a large crowd, the woman wheeled a sheep weighing 50 pounds from one village to the other and thus won the wager.

THE DOG AND THE SHADOW.

Durant Should Read This Classic From the Pen of Mr. Aesop and Become Good.

It appears that Durant can't loose from the State Normal brain storm. It was thought that this Texas line metropolis had decided to exercise that discretion which is the better part of valor and would become satisfied, say, with a branch of the insane asylum, but now, it is casting away the good effect of being good since the legislature opened, through the undertaking to promote an insurgent movement favorable to its jilted love of a State Normal. Really, Representative Bill Durant's late fulmination about the city of his name and the southeastern state normal tends to remind one of that fable of old Aesop about the dog and the shadow. Here it is, and referred to Durant:

"A dog, crossing a bridge over a stream with a piece of flesh in his mouth, saw his own shadow in the water and took it for that of another dog with a piece of meat double his own in size. He therefore let go his own and fiercely attacked the other dog, to get his larger piece from him. He thus lost both; that which he grasped at in the water, because it was a shadow; and his own, because the stream swept it away."

Moral: Grasp the shadow, lose the substance."

Otis Weaver is back home from a visit with parents down at Mt. Vernon, Tex.

GUIDANCE.

In almost every life there are times when we must cast ourselves wholly on God's promise and go out into some unknown future. To all of us there is in life an element of uncertainty. We cannot tell what shall be on the morrow. The curtain that hangs there no man may push aside. God's hand must draw it when and how he will, and what is beyond it we shall see only as we go forward. But to win or lose what lies out there we must risk what seems to us the uncertainty. Abraham must give up his country, and his kindred, and resting on the promise face the unknown. He is giving up a certainty and going out "not knowing whither." Moses had his future indicated, but it was one for which he felt himself wholly unfitted, and one which must unfold wholly under a divine mind. To reach God's purpose we must submit to his generalship. That which is intangible and shadowy will resolve itself into definiteness and light. David cannot have the throne till he leaves his sheep. Elshah cannot have the mantle of the prophet of God until he bids good-by to the oxen. There is indeed a blessing in the lowliest of toil, if that is where the Lord has laid our future. The shepherds of Bethlehem found this to their unspeakable joy. And the fisherman found it true at the Lake of Galilee. But the fishermen must leave their vocation while the shepherds must abide in theirs. In one case the blessing comes by leaving; in the other the blessing comes by remaining. It may have been as hard for the shepherds to go back to their trade as it was for the fishermen to leave theirs. In both cases comes the question of the divine guidance in reference to our future. It would never have done for Moses to have stayed right with his sheep and spent his days there at the backside of the desert. It would have been an unspeakable loss to the world. "Had Moses failed to go, had God granted his prayer, there would have been,

For him no leadership to win; No pillared fire; no magic rod; No wonders in the land of Zin; No smiting of the sea; no tears Ecstatic shed on Sinai steep; No Nebo, with God to keep His burial; only forty years Of desert, watching with his sheep."

Rexall "93" HAIR TONIC

Our faith in the superior remedial qualities of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is so strong that we promise to return your money—without question or quibble—if it does not do what we claim it will.

Because it contains Resorcin, Beta Naphthol, Pilocarpin, Borax, Glycerin and Alcohol in perfect combination, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic provides the softening, cleansing, antiseptic, germicidal, stimulating and nourishing properties, so desirable and necessary for the successful treatment of scalp and hair troubles.

If used according to directions for a reasonable length of time, we are absolutely positive that it will thoroughly cleanse the scalp and hair, relieve irritation, eradicate dandruff, stimulate the hair follicles and papilla, revitalize and nourish the hair roots, stop falling hair, prevent baldness, promote hair growth and make the hair naturally soft and silky.

You must realize that we would not dare back up our claims with such a liberal offer unless we were positive that we can substantiate our statements in every particular, and the most skeptical person should at least be willing to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic at our risk.

FOUR INDICTMENTS

Muskogee, Ok., Jan. 27.—There is unrest and discontent in Muskogee and towns in Eastern Oklahoma tonight as the result of the probing of the federal grand jury in the Mott townsite and Indian land suits. The jury has been in session for two days, and while there has been no public report, it is known that at least four indictments have been found against prominent Oklahomans. It is understood that all indictments so far have been for forgery. It was stated semi-officially tonight, however, that the jury would probably also indict for three things—forgery, conspiracy to defraud, and defrauding by the use of the United States mails. If such action should be taken the effect will be to widen the field of inquiry.

Haskell May Escape.

It is stated that Governor Haskell will not be included among those who are said to have been given attention by the grand jury. It is declared that two other people prominent in Muskogee have testified or given deposition to the effect that they were responsible for the alleged irregularities and not the governor. It is also stated that the grand jury has discovered that many notaries public have not complied with the law governing their offices and may come in for their share of attention. It is hinted that before stardom notaries were not careful in making acknowledgments.

One of the developments of the day was fear expressed by outside witnesses of bodily injury. One witness made the statement that he was afraid to leave his room at night. The business men of the town laugh at these fears.

The Muskogee Phoenix this morning published a story to the effect that there was danger of M. L. Mott, special attorney for the Creeks, being assassinated. Mott is the man who originally stirred up the townsite cases.

Special Attorney Rush of the department of justice, who, with United States Attorney Gregg, is conducting the investigation, stated today that it would take at least a week to examine all the witnesses. Judge Pollock of Kansas will preside on the bench tomorrow in place of Judge Campbell.

Muskogee, Ok., Jan. 27.—The investigation of the alleged town lot fraud by the federal grand jury continued all day. No report of its work was made public, but it is said the jury will insist that witnesses be called for from the Indian agency and the Dawes commission, which had charge of the Indian allotments.

Witnesses From Michigan.

Witnesses brought here from Hastings, Mich., friends of Walter R. Eaton, secretary of the Indianola Contracting Company, of which Gov. C. N. Haskell is president and which scheduled many town lots among those examined today by the federal grand jury investigating Muskogee town lot frauds. In some instances supposed "dummies" have identified their signatures to quit-claims and declare them to be genuine. This would dispose of the charge of forgery, but government attorneys say it would not affect the main charge of conspiracy to defraud.

It developed today that secret service officers have detected friends of the accused in the act of meeting outside witnesses as they arrive in Muskogee and of taking them to their homes.

Several witnesses already called before the grand jury have developed poor memories and as a result their examination has been drawn out. S. R. Rush, special attorney for the government, said today that if this phase develops strength, the work of the jury would consume several weeks' time.

Farmer Carlton Weaver.

Farmer Carlton Weaver, for a brief spell, the other day passed from the pleasing tranquil contemplation of the prospect when he should market his various crops of truck garden produce after a while, into that realm where a multitude of shooting stars traversed between such enraptured speculation and the haven of its accomplishment. It was this way: He was driving old Nell and Bess to a loaded wagon down the hill, with breaks on "all, lines tauntly drawn, his weight supported by the prop of his boots against the front of the bed, when suddenly the front wheels of the wagon swerved and dropped into a thirteen inch rut thereby producing a contortion of the wagon machinery sufficient to throw off the cold iron brake which released with finish speed landed on directly on the nose of the dreaming farmer. It was some time before he "woke up" in his natural mind.

Carlton carries somewhat more of the appearance of a foot ball nose than previously, but he appears comforted that the broken part affords a kind of Roman nose effect, an indication of a philosopher.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL. Health Is Worth Saving, and Some Ada People Know How to Save It.

Many Ada people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is an Ada citizen's recommendation: Mrs. C. C. Nash, E. Thirteenth street, Ada, Okla., says: "Different members of my family have used Doan's Kidney Pills procured at G. M. Ramsey's drug store, and in each instance the results of their use have been entirely satisfactory. We think that Doan's Kidney Pills are unequalled as a cure for kidney disorders. I cheerfully recommend this remedy to anyone suffering from kidney troubles."

PRESS COMMENT.

Unless some remedial legislation is had at the present session of the legislature, the credit of most counties in the eastern part of the state is going to suffer very severely. At present, commissioners are not allowed to issue warrants for more than 80 per cent of the tax levy for the current year and consequently most counties are not allowed to issue warrants for supplies purchased during the past three months. Warrants cannot be issued until the next tax levy is made, which will be in July. Then there will be no money with which to pay the warrants until the taxes are collected on the above levy. At present any kind of supplies furnished this county will not be paid for before next January, if then Senator Wynne has introduced a bill which gives commissioners authority to borrow money to the extent of the above 80 per cent as soon as warrants are issued.

Oklahoma has fixed salaries and fees for her officers. She also has fixed a rate for legal and official publication. Her officers draw every cent coming to them in fees or salary, yet at the same time, some of them want the newspapers man to do his work for less than the state allows for such work or have the papers of the county cut each other's throat with bids for the work. Is it right? Nay, nay, Pauline—Maid News

Muskogee, Ok., Jan. 26—Every precaution is being used to guard the secrets in the interior of the wall of the United States jail where the federal grand jury is probing into the alleged land and town lot frauds. Three indictments have been returned. It is reported. It is understood that no less than 300 indictments will be returned before the grand jury finishes its work. When court was called at 10 o'clock this morning the room was crowded. The space behind the rail was occupied by attorneys, secret service men, representatives of the government and prominent citizens of the state. There are twenty-one members of the grand jury, and, according to the rules of procedure, it will be necessary for sixteen to be in session at all times. Two mentioned in connection with the suits are on their death beds. After the preliminaries the grand jury was led to the hospital ward in the federal jail.

L. B. Conway, Thomas Hamlin and W. W. Williamson were the first witnesses examined.

It was reported here this afternoon that President Roosevelt had wired here that the investigation should not be confined to Muskogee alone.

The man who is always borrowing money is almost as great a nuisance as the one who has no money to lend.

When Dame Fortune knocks at our door we are consumed with the hope that all our neighbors are looking out of their windows.
